Japanese Four Panel Screen: Autumn Grasses by a Flowing Stream

A striking Japanese four-panel screen depicting autumn grasses and wildflowers along the edge of a flowing stream, rendered in brilliant mineral pigments against a luminous gold leaf ground. White plume grasses, yellow milkweed, and vibrant cockscomb create a balanced seasonal composition, while the deep blue water provides a bold visual counterpoint to the warm gold background. Executed in mineral pigments on gold leaf and presented in black lacquer trim. Anonymous artist.
