

Japanese Six Panel Screen: By Garden's Edge

Edo period (18th century) painting of a flowing array of various types of chrysanthemums painted on beautifully faceted heavy gold leaf and behind a finely painted fence. Petals of the chrysanthemums are rendered in raised gofun. This screen has the true essence of Rimpa painting. Beautiful signature in vermillion is difficult to read, but appears to read Shisei Takatsune.

PRICE RANGE:

- green tier

PERIOD:	18th century
ORIGIN:	Japan
DIMENSIONS:	68" h x 148" w 172.7cm h x 375.9cm w
ITEM #:	S1763

- $0-$5,000 (black tier)
- $5,001-$10,000 (red tier)
- $10,001-$25,000 (blue tier)
- $25,001-$50,000 (yellow tier)

- $50,001-$100,000 (green tier)
- over $100,000 (orange tier)