

Japanese Two Panel Screen: Nara Deer in Gentle Yoshino Landscape

Yoshino is in the Nara Prefecture, an area famous for these small and tame deer native to Japan. Meiji period (1868 - 1912), Shijo School painting of a family of deer in a forest of autumn maple trees. Ink and mineral pigments on mulberry paper with gold dust, silver leaf clouds, and a silk brocade border.

PRICE RANGE:

blue tier

PERIOD: c. 1900 ORIGIN: Japan

DIMENSIONS: 67 1/2" h x 70 1/2" w x 3/4" d

 $171.5 \text{cm h} \times 179.1 \text{cm w} \times 1.9 \text{cm d}$

ITEM #: $1305

- $0-$5,000 (black tier)
- $5,001-$10,000 (red tier)
- $10,001-$25,000 (blue tier)

- $25,001-$50,000 (yellow tier)
- $50,001-$100,000 (green tier)
- over $100,000 (orange tier)